

Event Summary

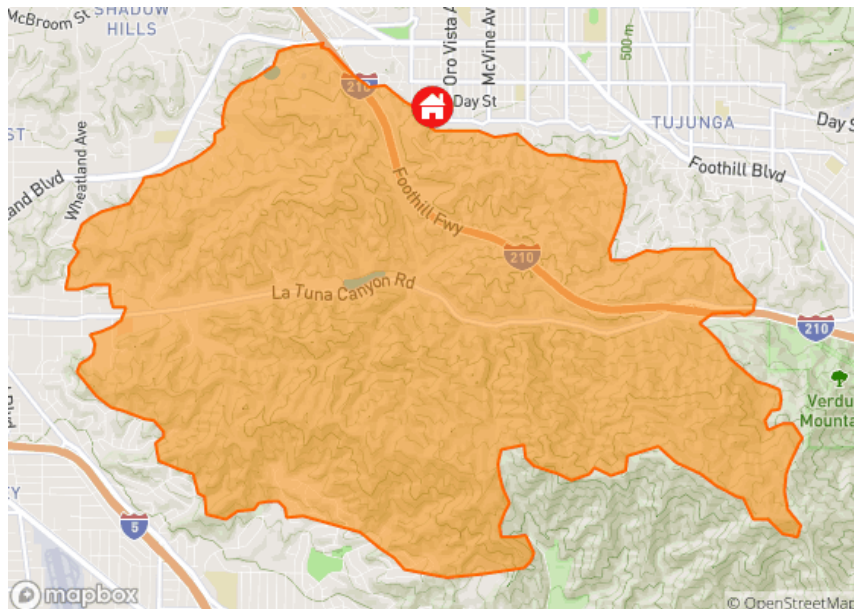

B.W. Baker is tracking wildfire activity near your home at 8454 Day St, Sunland, CA. Maximizing your home's protection and the safety of you and your family is of the utmost importance. While the LaTuna Fire continues to burn in the area, we will keep you updated on the fire's status so you can be as prepared as possible.

As of 09/06/17 7:29 AM PDT, the fire is 7,194 acres and 80% contained. Given the current fire perimeter mapping, the fire is approximately 0.08 miles from your home.

Local fire authorities may be evacuating homeowners in the area. For up-to-date information on evacuations, please refer to local media outlets. Be advised that evacuation of your home doesn't necessarily indicate pending property damage or loss.

Click here for more information on evacuation preparedness.

To report a claim, please contact the Farmers Insurance Exchange claims department at 1-800-435-7764.

Please note: Fire perimeters are approximate and based on many different sources. Homes located inside the fire perimeter may not have suffered damage.